The Blaze

Muazzam
IT-HUB MAGZINE
2/1/2016
Principal’s Message

Dr. Abdul Rehman Pasha

It gives immense pleasure to record my views for The Blaze; the first issue of the Bi-Annual Magazine of IT-hub. This issue is indeed going to provide a platform for both students and teachers of the Institute to promote their creative skills and intellectual capabilities.

As we all know, the rapid evolution of technology, global expansion of information, and constantly changing patterns of communication are part of our routine life. Due to this, today’s technology driven society poses serious challenge as well as exciting opportunities for all of us. We need to have solid grounding in the fundamentals and the most relevant skills for being effective on the job and to thrive and to grow in today’s challenging world.

Taking a holistic approach and maintaining a fine balance between curricular, co-curricular activities, and extra-curricular activities, IT-hub is striving to develop the overall personality of the students. I wholeheartedly appreciate the great efforts put in by the Editor, Mr. Muazzam Shahzad, students, and faculty members in producing this Magazine. I am sure; this effort will never be a onetime activity. The process shall be continued.
Editor’s Message

Mr. Muazzam Shahzad

The story of this magazine begins when the Principal envisions the need of a magazine as a platform for conceptualizing and harvesting the creative skills and intellectual capabilities of the students.

No dithering to claim that IT-hub has set a new trend through publishing this official magazine of the Institute within one year of its inception; and of course with such maturity and brilliance. Laurels to the staff members and students who make it happen with their utmost hard work, dedication and professionalism.

It is well known fact that communities who develop their traditions live future. Through this magazine, we have laid down one of our traditions. I hope the staff and students will keep this tradition alive for contributing something good for the institution, country and for the global community.

I hope you have enjoyed the past year at College and learnt a lot in your course and the additional activities that are made available to you.

Once again, I appreciate the students and congratulate the teachers for their encouragement and valuable guidance.
Philosophy of education at IT-Hub

A great education doesn’t just make a student and expert in one area- it gives him/her/ a well rounded knowledge base that prepare him/her to face the challenges of both 21st century’s complex workplaces and rapidly evolving global community. Education @IT-Hub seeks to connect in an explicit way, what students learn in classrooms to life outside the ivied walls and beyond the college years. For this, in addition to the Curriculum of Sargodha University, IT-hub has adopted a trans-disciplinary approach to work on following three important areas:

1. General Education
2. Personality Grooming
3. Professional Development

The knowledge covered in these areas aim:

- Not to draw the students into discipline, but to bring the disciplines into their lives.
- Promote professionalism through strengthening both soft skills and hard skills.

The Power of Positive Thinking

Nayyer Nagina
BSCS

Positive thinking can give life to our dreams and change our destiny. Our thoughts are the most important asset we have in our desire to achieve our dreams. They affect us in many ways which we never thought possible. The truth is, whether we know it or not, our thoughts are responsible for whatever situation we are in right now.

Nobody would argue that electricity exists; you can't touch, smell, hear or see it. But, its effects are evident everywhere; its power is evident everywhere. Just as electricity drives a motor, our thoughts are the energy which drives our life. A positive mental attitude strengthens this energy. A positive thinking helps us to enjoy positive energy. Consequently, we enjoy the positive results. As the Chinese say, “Always leap, hoping for good”. Keep a green tree in your heart the singing bird will surely come.

Peace of Inner Self

M. Awais
BSCS

In my early life, I made two very important discoveries. Firstly, I discovered that making money is easy; secondly, making money and spending it foolishly is completely meaningless. I know this is not what I am here for, but at that time (this was many years ago), I was not sure about the purpose of my life. My both discoveries came across during the span of life when I was very deeply seeking to find out the ways to spend my life in a meaningful way. After spending many distressing days and sleepless nights, I came to know the exact answers of twitchy questions about my life. It would not be wrong if I consider both discoveries as the most important psychological hump of my life. These discoveries made my life meaning full. I found my destiny. With a complete willingness and without any reservations, I made a decision to dedicate my life for the servant of humanity.

Just to share with you this has been a point of no return. I am sure, once one made this decision, he/she cannot adopt a self-centered living style. Such happened to me as well. I entered into a second phase of my life. My purpose of life became “to give” rather “to get”. This decision brought me into a new and wonderful world. My life began to become meaningful. As a result, I started enjoying the great blessing of good health; I haven't had a cold or headache since then. I have very strong and happy feeling about my life. I have made a gentleman promise with myself that the rest of my life I will work for the promotion of peace; peace among nations, peace among groups, peace among individuals, and most importantly peace of oneself.

Simple as it might sound- just let it go

When you start meeting new people, you might feel nervousness or insecurity. In a way you are in a vulnerable position because there is a certain level of dependence on other people you are meeting. You are not sure about their attitude, might they accept you or demonstrate a cold behavior. You may also worry about your impression, communication, personality, etc.
Do not worry. Such aspects put a lot of pressure on everyone who encounters such situation. Some students in their first semester have a tendency to observe their behavior and the responses of others through a magnifying glass. They are usually bothered by questions like; did I appear like a nice person in this interaction? Did the others like me?

Questions like these can trap you in a depressing situation. If you think like that, your early days at the university/college can become very stressful. Every inspiring experience of getting to know somebody will become a challenging competition of revival.

In such situation follow my sincere advice, “just let it go”. Take a deep breath; let all the tensions, expectations or pressure slide from your shoulders. Every person can be the one that you can depend on for your company. People will then be able to see the person you are in everyday life.

Of course, chances are that some people may reject you. That’s very natural. It’s what life is and it is everywhere. The thing is that your continual efforts will make you able to meet with people who are meant to be your friends for life.

It sounds easy, but it takes a lot of courage and practice to do so. If you are still not feeling comfortable communicating with new people, use any social discovery application or read some books how to make friendship with strangers.

Socialize Smart via Mobile

Today, most of the students have smart phones and they use it intensively. There are many social applications that can help you to find fellow students online and connect with them in an easier way. Through online media you can find useful information about other students which may help you to communicate with them. Download any application that can help you to build a successful social life.

Remember, even the most self-confident students may encounter problems including, homesickness, meeting with new people, etc. Discover your new surroundings. You can find many potential friends in one place. So visit college canteen, have some drinks, enjoy with fast food, and participate in college events and outdoor trips.
What I Think About Fashion

Sana Khalid
MSc IT

Fashion is usually defined as a popular or the latest style of clothing, hair, decoration, or behavior. To me fashion is a fun which strengthens our creative skills, provides freedom of expression. I love designing clothes. It allows me to express my thought, feelings, and mode thought clothes. I love designing clothes which appears to be a cultural statement. Having one’s personal style makes him/her cool & unique. Yet, many people have the tendency to adopt the latest fashion; even they take it as their favorite hobby.

- Fashion is could not be said something that exists in dresses only. Fashion is everywhere, in the sky, in the streets, in bedrooms, in functions, etc. It is the way you spend your life. It is the approach you have towards the world around you. It is the attitude you demonstrate towards others. It’s all about your personal style, including wearing high end, low end, classical, or designer labels.

- About fashion American actress Ariana Grande says, “to do what makes you comfortable and what makes you feel cute, and that’s how you’re gonna look your best 'cause when you feel your best, everybody else can feel it, too.”

- The great thing about fashion is that it always looks forward. We are living in an era of abstract fashion which has no well defined rules. You don’t learn about the latest fashion in isolation. You have to acquire information about the latest fashion from fashion websites, magazines, watching dress shows, and observing people around you.

- I believe fashion portray your image. So fashion should not be for yourself only, neither for the general public.

- I always say that I don’t like it when people follow trends too much, just because it is on the runway.

- I think what you wear really does need to reflect what your own personal style is.

- I admire anyone with their own sense of personal style.

- I don’t want to be proud, but I have a good personal style.
The Life
Waqas Ahmed
MSc IT

What is the life?
Is it a time span of 70 or 80 years which may be spent without any purpose?
Different people have different point of views about life.
Some people say, “Life Is To Enjoy”.
Some consider it AS a chance to work hard and reach on the highest level of advancement and progress.
The ISLAMIC PHILOSOPHY about life advocates that life gives us a chance to please our creator “ALL MIGHT ALLAH”.

In my opinion Islamic philosophy about life is MORE LOGICAL, MENINGFULL, and could be considered RIGHT.
It seems very logical that we SHOULDBE very thankful to ALL MIGHT ALLAH who has BLESSED us with Islam and brought us in a Muslim country. SO the purpose of life is “to please ALL MIGHT ALLAH. My ALLAH gives us strength to do so”

Life Is A Struggle
Palwasha Irum
BSIT

- Struggle is the first principle of life and its evolution to higher and higher forms. It is the very essence of fruitful and successful life. What is life, if it has no movement and no progress? In fact life devoted of struggle is no better than death.
- Struggle is the man’s progress, We know that only a few thousand years ago a man lived in jungles and cares. His life was not much different than that of a heart. But fortunately he was not satisfied with his condition and not content to remain where he was. He had some forces with him, which urged him to move forward. He had the will to progress. Although difficulties were very great yet the struggle against his environment. He used his hands, he used his senses and above all he used his brain.
- NO one can deny the fact that the fruits of his world are only for those who work and work hard. Those who move reach their destination. Those who stand and stare are left behind. The struggle is equally important for the progress of the nation. Why some nations are on the top of the world while some others are finding it difficult even to stay at the bottom? The answer is simple: “Those who struggle, rise and those who do not, fall”.

How to Make New Friends at College or University?

Saad Abdullah
BSSE

There are moments in life when you are being forced to change your environment completely. Going abroad or to another city for studies is one of such moments which bring a radical change in the scenery of your life.

Moments of sudden change can bring excitement or apprehension. You may feel everything is open for you. You have the chance to reinvent yourself and grab the opportunities to promote yourself. But, there are some hitches as well. For example, you have to leave friends you had for years and years. You might apprehend you will never have such good friends again. But for your survival, you have to struggle to find some new good friends. It is a daunting challenge, especially when you are shy and no one knows you.

But don’t worry. You will find like-minded people wherever you go, especially in college or the university as you have so much in common already. Here are some tips that can help you out in making good friendship:

say thank you!
If you can walk out the door,
and go to the store,
say thank you!
If you have a dear friend,
and have precious time to spend,
say thank you!
If you can begin each day,
and are able to pray,
say thank you!
If you can take time to be still,
and read God’s word,
and seek His will,
say thank you!
Even with all my sin,
by God’s grace,
into His sheltering arms,
He welcomed me in,
and I will always say thank you!

Determination

All is silent, all is still
No one around to see the thrill;
Small, small light
A shadow moves
The petals move, start to sing
Wind picks up, nature's music starts
Starting at point base, feeling in the heart
Born to feel, always live the same

Never let the soul ever be tame;
Starting to move, step by step
Slowly at first, but fast at last;
Keeping in tune to the sound of the heart
Finishes, beautiful spin; tidy dancer starts off again;
A silent applause, for no one to hear
A feeling of gratitude from those who are near;
Still no one around, absolutely no sound
But a smile suddenly creeps while are Determination drives us to Exceed our expectations while continuing to Thrive within the challenges presented.
Exertion put forth
Rationalizes our interior Motives, while continually igniting the needed thrust to Navigate to our Astronomic hopes and dreams.
To sustain our determination we need to Inspect and reflect on our past while
Neglecting our doubts to charge to our endeavors.

Love's Eternal Springs

Sitting down beside you,
I listened to your dreams,
I thought the world were you
With tales of many themes;

You spoke of brown houses
In fields of green and gold,
Birds in red warehouses,
Home when they're weak and old;
You showed to me cities,
I thought were not alive,
Big places, loud 'nineties,
I wanted off by five.

You talked of song and art
I've never heard nor seen,
Cultures so far apart,
Lifestyles of wealth and sin,

And you told me lastly,
The feelings true love brings -
The joys and cheers mostly,
Like love's eternal springs.

When you’re troubled, down or blue.
All you have to do is call me,
I’m always here for you.

It doesn’t matter where I’m at,
It doesn’t matter when.
When you need someone to talk to,
I’m here to be your friend.

If you need someone to hold your hand,
Or a hug to say I care.
If you need a shoulder to cry on,
For you I will be there.

So never think you are a burden,
When the weight gets to be too much.
You might find if look hard enough,
A good friend could be the right touch.

You’re never alone, I’m always here,
Through the good times and the bad.
I’m always here to be your friend,
I don’t like to see you sad.
